DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 30-37 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art by Min (6,577,288) fails to teach a housing for protecting a flat panel display comprising: a rear blade, a front blade, and a side blade extending between and integrated with the front blade and the rear blade, wherein the side blade is transformable from a linear shape to a bent shape, the side blade extends substantially along a straight line when the side blade is in the linear shape, and the side blade is bent to form at least one angle when the side blade is in the bent shape; Whereby when the housing is used to protect the flat panel display, the side blade is in the bent shape and substantially extends along and covers at least two adjacent lateral edges of the flat panel display, the front blade is disposed in front of the flat panel display, and the rear blade is disposed behind the flat panel display; and a side blade extending between and connecting the front blade and the rear blade to form a bent shape and in which the frame is bent or folded around the peripheral edges of a flat panel display to form a one-piece, easily assembled housing for the flat panel display.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
